17

S.B. No. 788—Bradford.

The Assembly amendments instead revised that prohibition to include race, religious creed, color, national origin, gender, marital status, sex, sexual identity, or sexual orientation, and exclude age and genetic characteristics.

18

S.B. No. 294—Leyva et al.

An act relating to public retirement, and making an appropriation therefor.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 294, as it passed the Senate, revised portions of the Teachers’ Retirement Law and Public Employees’ Retirement Law to remove a 12-year limit on the maximum amount of service credit that can be earned by a member for a leave of absence to serve as an elected officer of a public employee organization. These provisions apply to employees of school districts and community college districts.

The Assembly amendments also provide that this leave is in addition to any leave to which public employees may be entitled, as specified, and with respect to community college districts employees, apply the provisions retroactively to service as an elected officer in a public employee organization occurring after August 31, 1978. The Assembly amendments prescribe a process and conditions for receiving service credit in this context, generally prescribe the rates at which contributions are to be made, as specified, and make conforming changes.

Vote: 21. Substantial substantive change: yes.

(Final vote in the Senate: AYES—29. NOES—7.)

2021

Aug. 16—In Senate. Concurrence in Assembly amendments pending.

S.B. No. 26—Skinner et al.

An act relating to collegiate athletics, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 26, as it passed the Senate, made the Fair Pay to Play Act operative on January 1, 2022, or when specified rule changes adopted by the Board of Governors of the National Collegiate Athletic Association took effect, whichever occurred first. The Senate amendments prohibited a postsecondary educational institution from denying a student athlete any rights provided to other college students at the institution, except as provided.

The Assembly amendments instead make the Fair Pay to Play Act operative on September 1, 2021, and apply the act to the California Community Colleges. The Assembly amendments also delete the provision prohibiting a postsecondary educational institution from denying a student athlete any rights provided to other college students at the institution. S.B. No. 822—Committee on Natural Resources and Water (Senators Stern (Chair)) et al.

An act relating to marine resources.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 822, as it passed the Senate, among other things, made a nonsubstantive correction to a specified provision requiring the State Lands Commission to adopt a regulation that requires an owner or operator of a vessel carrying, or capable of carrying, ballast water that operates on the waters of the state to comply with specified federal law.

The Assembly amendments require the master, owner, operator, or person in charge of a vessel to report a ballast water treatment system problem during a voyage to the commission as soon as practicable. The Assembly amendments further require the commission to consult with the United States Coast Guard to attempt to identify an alternative, environmentally sound method of ballast water management in those circumstances, as provided, for its mandatory use.

S.B. No. 498—Umberg.

An act relating to attorneys.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 498, as it passed the Senate, expanded the definition of “indigent person” in the State Bar Act. SB 498, as it passed the Senate, further required, for the purpose of that definition, that the income of a person who is disabled be determined after deducting disability compensation from the United States Veterans Administration paid to a veteran with a service-related disability. SB 498, as it passed the Senate, included disabled veterans within special client groups for purposes of the certain other projects that may qualify for funds.

The Assembly amendments retain those changes to existing law and add the Legislature’s intent relating to the distribution of funds for the provision of legal services to indigent persons. Specifically, the Assembly amendments specify that it is the intent of the Legislature that grantees may use the new definition of “indigent person” for determining eligibility for services, and for use of the funds distributed pursuant to existing law. The Assembly amendments further specify that it is the intent of the Legislature that, for funds distributed prior to January 1, 2024, the State Bar of California would use the definition of “indigent person” as it read on January 1, 2021, as provided.

Vote: 21. Substantial substantive change: yes.

S.B. No. 756—Hueso.

An act relating to energy.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 756, as it passed the Senate, defined “low-income customers” for purposes of the Energy Savings Assistance Program as persons and families whose household income is at or below 250% of the federal poverty level.

The Assembly amendments instead, from January 1, 2022, to June 30, 2022, inclusive, define “low-income customers” for purposes of the program as customers with annual household incomes that are no greater than 200% of the federal poverty guideline levels. The Assembly amendments would, on and after July 1, 2022, define “low-income customers” for those purposes as persons and families whose household income is at or below 250% of the federal poverty level, and would prohibit the Public Utilities Commission from increasing the authorized budgets for the program based on that expansion of income eligibility.

S.B. No. 821—Committee on Natural Resources and Water (Senators Stern (Chair)) et al.

An act relating to water, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 821, as it passed the Senate, provided that members of the Delta Independent Science Board are not employees of the Delta Stewardship Council and required the members of the board to exercise their scientific judgment and perform their functions independently from the council.

The Assembly amendments require the council to contract for the services of the members of the board, as specified, and exempt those contracts from specified provisions of law governing public contracting. The Assembly amendments further require the council to establish procedures for contracting for the services that are subject to those contracts. The Assembly amendments declare that SB 821 is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

S.B. No. 353—Roth.

An act relating to hospice.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 353, as it passed the Senate, extended the requirement for a licensee providing palliative care to provide the State Department of Public Health with specified information for the period of time the licensee provided palliative care to each January 1 until January 1, 2025.

The Assembly amendments instead extend that requirement to each April 30, beginning April 30, 2022, until April 30, 2025. The Assembly amendments also require the licensee to provide that information through the department's online reporting portal for the period of time in the prior calendar year during which the licensee was approved to provide palliative care, as specified.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 269, as it passed the Senate, among other changes, revised the powers the board of directors of a credit union may delegate to a membership committee or executive committee, as specified.

The Assembly amendments require the board of directors who delegate the power to approve applicants to the chairperson of a membership committee or an executive committee to do so pursuant to written membership plan adopted by the board of directors, and define “membership committee.” The Assembly amendments require every credit union to obtain adequate bond or insurance coverage for each audit committee member, revise voting and other procedural requirements for establishing an audit committee, and revise requirements for the composition, appointment, and removal of audit committee members.

S.B. No. 273—Hertzberg et al.

An act relating to water quality.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 273, as it passed the Senate, authorized a municipal wastewater agency, as defined, to enter into agreements with entities responsible for stormwater management for the purpose of managing stormwater and dry weather runoff, to acquire, construct, expand, operate, maintain, and provide facilities for specified purposes relating to managing stormwater and dry weather runoff, and to levy taxes, fees, and charges consistent with the municipal wastewater agency's existing authority in order to fund projects undertaken pursuant to the bill. SB 273, as it passed the Senate, required the exercise of any new authority granted under the bill to comply with the Cortese-Knox-Hertzberg Local Government Reorganization Act of 2000.

The Assembly amendments require a municipal wastewater agency that enters into or amends one of the above agreements after January 1, 2022, to file a copy of the agreement or amendment with the local agency formation commission in each county where any part of the municipal wastewater agency's territory is located, but would exempt those agreements and amendments from local agency formation commission approval except as required by the Cortese-Knox-Hertzberg Local Government Reorganization Act of 2000. The Assembly amendments define "dry weather runoff" and "stormwater" for the purposes of the bill.

Vote: 21. Substantial substantive change: yes.

S.B. No. 453—Hurtado et al.

An act relating to agriculture, and making an appropriation therefor.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 453, as it passed the Senate, created the Biosecurity and Emerging Infectious Disease Fund, the moneys in which would have been continuously appropriated to the Department of Agriculture for allocation to the California State University Foundation for distribution to the Jordan Agricultural Research Center at California State University, Fresno, for purposes of supporting research on biosecurity and emerging infectious diseases relating to agriculture and mitigating the effects of emerging infectious diseases on meat, poultry, and other agricultural production.

The Assembly amendments instead require the moneys in the fund to be continuously appropriated to the California State University Agricultural Research Institute for purposes of supporting research on biosecurity related to agriculture, and establishing best practices to mitigate the introduction and effects of infectious agents upon the animal and plant agricultural system of California. The Assembly amendments also require the California State University Agricultural Research Institute to administer a grant program, with research grants to be awarded, as specified, to campuses of the California State University associated with the California State University Agricultural Research Institute.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 813, as it passed the Senate, revised various provisions regarding a requirement for each local agency to furnish certain financial reports to the Controller and a requirement for each hospital district to publish a specified financial statement.

The Assembly amendments also exempt the proposed sale or lease of lots or other interests in a subdivision that are limited to industrial or commercial uses by law or by a declaration of covenants, conditions, and restrictions that have been recorded, as specified, from various requirements relating to, among other things, a sales contract relating to the purchase of real property in a subdivision and the right to rescind a contract to purchase an interest in an undivided-interest subdivision.

S.B. No. 824—Committee on Governance and Finance (Senators McGuire (Chair)) et al.

An act relating to tax and fee administration.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 824, as it passed the Senate, made, among other things, various conforming changes consistent with the transfer of duties, powers, and responsibilities from the State Board of Equalization to the California Department of Tax and Fee Administration (department). SB 824, as it passed the Senate, required claims for refunds or credit under various state tax laws be in a format prescribed by the department instead of in writing.

The Assembly amendments repeal, on January 1, 2022, certain Administrative Procedure Act exemptions currently granted to the department. The Assembly amendments remove from the bill provisions changing the procedure for claiming refunds or credit under various state tax laws. The Assembly amendments require that the tax collection cost recovery fee under various state tax laws be less than or equal to the department's costs for collection, as specified, rather than equal to those costs.

The Assembly amendments make additional changes under the Emergency Telephone Users Surcharge Act, including by implementing surcharge remitting procedures for certain sellers and requiring the Office of Emergency Services to notify the department of its annual surcharge amount determination with respect to the purchase of prepaid mobile telephony services. The Assembly amendments make it unlawful for certain agencies or persons to permit any fee billing containing certain information to be seen or examined by any persons not expressly authorized, as specified.

The Assembly amendments revise the underpayment interest rates and overpayment rate for purposes of a timber yield tax under the Timber Yield Tax Law, as specified. The Assembly amendments also make other nonsubstantive changes.
